

the service shall be an amount equal to the amount that is payable under these regulations to a physician in practice in general for a service of the kind provided, except that

- (a) the specialist fee listed in the surgical procedures section of the fee schedule will be paid to a specialist who performs surgery within his field of practice, and
- (b) the specialist fee listed in the diagnostic and therapeutic procedures section of the fee schedule will be paid to the specialist if it is the only applicable fee;
- (c) the specialist fee for hospital visits in the consultations and visits section of the fee schedule will be paid to a specialist who carries out hospital visits within his field of practice on a beneficiary who has been admitted to hospital."

2. The Regulations are further amended by repealing Regulation 10 and substituting therefor the following:

"10. The extent of the charges which may be made against the beneficiary under subsection (3) of section 24 of the Act is the extent to which the fees payable by the Commission for the non-referred insured services are exceeded by the fees payable by the Commission for corresponding insured services which are referred."

3. These Regulations shall come into force on 1 April, 1984.
