Mr. Pritchard:

Your letter of Monday afternoon, December 7, 2009, invited a written submission by Ms. Darlene Neville, for which you specified a deadline of 3:00 p.m. on Wednesday, meaning within 48 hours. It is completely unsatisfactory for you to now, at 10:30 a.m. on Tuesday, purport to impose a new deadline of today, Tuesday, at 3:00 p.m.

As I told you during our telephone conversation of this morning, Ms. Neville will be providing a written submission in response to your letter of December 7th, and she will do so no later than 3:00 p.m. on Wednesday, December 9, 2009.
