Subject Index

Please Note:

Index entries always refer to Frederick Alderdice as “Prime Minister”, despite the fact that the text occasionally identifies him as “Mr. Alderdice.”

Index entries always refer to F. Gordon Bradley as “Leader of the Opposition”, despite the fact that the text sometimes refers to him as “Mr. Bradley.”

The Subject Index sorts entries by topic, and usually includes the name of the Member (House of Assembly or Legislative Council) who spoke on that topic.

The Speaker Index, which follows the Subject Index, sorts entries by the name of the Member who spoke on a given topic.

A note concerning bills:

Several examples of bill entries for 1933 appear incomplete in the index, since they did not proceed through passage in Legislative Council. If a step in the process of a bill's passage was not noted in the 1933 debates, it does not occur in the index. That was the case for these following entries:
