

How to Respond to a Demand to Disclose

Instructions

A Response to Demand to Disclose (Form F11.02B) is a form that you can use to respond to the other person's Demand to Disclose (Form F11.02A).

You have only 30 days (from the date you received the Demand to Disclose) to provide the other person and the Court with the documents and information along with the Response to a Demand to Disclose form.

If you do not respond, the Court may proceed and make an order without hearing from you.

Completing Your Response to Demand to Disclose

You can fill out this form by hand or you can download and fill out this form electronically at www.court.nl.ca/supreme/family/forms.html (If you fill out the form electronically, you must still print the form, file it with the Court, and serve a copy on the other person).

List the documents that you are attaching and the documents that you are not attaching.

If you cannot provide the requested documents or information for any reason, you may be able to give authorization to a person or institution (eg. your employer) to provide the information. Otherwise, you must explain why you cannot provide the documents.

If you object to providing any or all of the documents requested, you must write this in your Response to Demand to Disclose and provide reasons.

Filing Your Response to Demand to Disclose

You must make 3 extra copies of your completed and signed Response to Demand to Disclosure.

To file the Response to Demand to Disclose, you must bring the original Response to Demand to Disclose to the Supreme Court location where your file is or you can mail it to that location. You must file your Response to Demand to Disclose with the Court within 30 days from the date you were served.

Serving Your Response to Demand to Disclose

You may serve your Response to Demand to Disclose with your Originating Application, Originating Application for Variation, Response, or Reply. If you are serving just the Demand to Disclose alone, you can serve the other person by: personal service (an adult, who is not you, can hand-deliver the document), leaving a copy with the other person's lawyer, leaving a copy at the other person's address, registered mail/courier, or regular mail. You may also serve the other person using fax, email, or electronic document exchange, if the other person has provided that information.
