Section 24 of the House of Assembly Accountability, Integrity and Administration Act outlines the process for rulings on allowance use. When an expense related to advertising or publications has been rejected for reimbursement or payment, a Member may choose to submit an appeal of the decision to the Speaker as the Chair of the House of Assembly Management Commission. Under the Act, the Speaker may make a ruling on the matter and distribute the ruling to the Commission for concurrence. Alternatively, the Speaker may choose to bring the matter to a regular meeting of the Commission for consideration.

The following outlines the process for a Member to follow when appealing an expense that has been rejected for payment:

- Member must submit a request in writing to the Speaker outlining details of the expense(s) that has been rejected and reason(s) for the rejection. The Member must demonstrate that the expenditures are in compliance with the Act, the Rules or a Directive of the Commission. Once the request is received by the Speaker, he/she may request further information on the expenditure(s) in question if necessary.
- Once the matter has been reviewed by the Speaker, the Member will be notified in writing as to whether a ruling will be made by the Speaker, or brought to a meeting of the Management Commission for consideration.
